Mike,

A couple questions come to mind. First, when was the last aldicarb assessment done?

DDG,

Ignore the title of this note; the aldicarb meeting is just sticking in my mind.

We're obviously now going to have to finish an aldicarb "risk assessment" quickly. My proposed approach is to simply

Will has been working on this, and he's off until January 4, which obviously won't work. So I've asked him to take a shot at pulling something together, and we'll pull David in to polish it up, and hopefully we'll have what we need on time. I'll talk with Will privately about taking his missed vacation time.

This will obviously be a controversial one, so I was wondering if you had any thoughts on all of this. Thanks.

Mike
